

If You Will Listen to My Words

The rain may come, the wind may blow, the flood may rise a - round,

This block contains the first line of musical notation. It features a treble and bass staff joined by a brace on the left. Both staves are in the key of D major, indicated by two sharps (F# and C#). The melody is written in the treble staff, and the bass line is in the bass staff. The lyrics 'The rain may come, the wind may blow, the flood may rise a - round,' are written below the staves. The music consists of eighth and quarter notes, with a final double bar line and repeat dots.

but that man's house will stand, be - cause it's built on so - lid ground.

This block contains the second line of musical notation. It continues the treble and bass staff from the first line. The melody and bass line follow the same pattern as the first line. The lyrics 'but that man's house will stand, be - cause it's built on so - lid ground.' are written below the staves. The music concludes with a final double bar line and repeat dots.
