

Ten Bridesmaids Waited for the Time

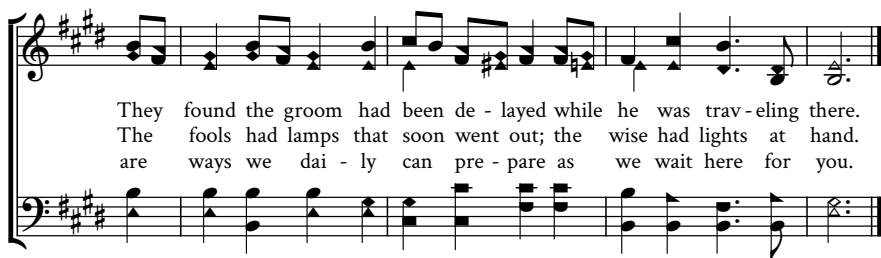

1. Ten brides - maids wait - ed for the time the wed - ding would be - gin;
 2. The fool - ish brides - maids wait - ed, too, with lamps that lost their light.
 3. O Lord, re - mind us that your day will come with great sur - prise.

they took their lamps to meet the groom, for they ex - pect - ed him.
 For, un - pre - pared, they'd left their fuel back at the house that night.
 So may we faith - ful - ly o - bey as peo - ple who are wise.

The wise ones went out - side to wait, with jars of oil and some to spare.
 The bride - groom came with fes - tive shout; the joy - ous wed - ding soon be - gan.
 For deeds of jus - tice, words of prayer, and gen - tle acts of kind - ness, too,

They found the groom had been de - layed while he was trav - eling there.
 The fools had lamps that soon went out; the wise had lights at hand.
 are ways we dai - ly can pre - pare as we wait here for you.
