

We Join the Crowd, Who, On This Day

1. We join the crowd, who, on this day, sang praise to Christ a - long the way;
6. Ac - cept - ing all his love will give, for him and oth - ers let us live, their theme re - newed we glad - ly sing: Ho - san - na to the Lord, our King!

then come pre - pared to sing and pray, with great - er cause on Eas - ter Day.

2. Yet, when the hom - age has been paid and all the ac - cla -
3. Keep watch with him through all his shame, the taunts, the in - sults
4. Then come with won - der - ment to see how great his love for
5. Hence - forth no dark - ness, no de - spair, but light from Christ is ma - tions fade, may we be found with Je - sus still and the blame, his lone - ly a - go - ny, His doubt,

you and me: he takes the vi - cious cross of wood,
shin - ing there: the pre - cious Pas - sion of the Lord

be - neath His cross on Cal - v'ry's hill.
His bro - ken - ness, his life poured out.
and turns its ev - il to our good.
brings hope re - newed and joy re - stored.
