The first system of the musical score is written on two staves. The upper staff is in treble clef with a key signature of two flats (B-flat and E-flat). It contains a melody with various note values including eighth and sixteenth notes, and rests. The lower staff is in bass clef with the same key signature, providing a harmonic accompaniment with chords and moving lines. The lyrics are placed between the two staves, aligned with the corresponding musical phrases.

light shine be-fore oth-ers, that they may glo-ri-fy God who is in heav-en.

The second system of the musical score continues the melody and accompaniment from the first system. It also consists of two staves in treble and bass clefs with a two-flat key signature. The melody concludes with a final chord and a double bar line. The lyrics continue between the staves, ending with a period.
